- I. The Appellant was not denied the opportunity to make a full and complete presentation to the Hearing Officer;
- II. There has been no showing that any new evidence is now available that is relevant to this issue that was not available at the time of the Hearing Officer's hearing;
- III. The Hearing Officer's decision was not arbitrary; the evidence that was presented to the Hearing Officer supports the decision of the Hearing Officer;
- IV. The appeal does not present a city-wide issue on which guidance of the Committee On Public Safety and Neighborhood Services is required and the matter is not of city-wide significance; and
- V. The Hearing Officer's decision is not in conflict with adopted Council Policy or the Municipal Code.
