

REPORT TO THE HONORABLE
MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL
BALLOT LANGUAGE OF PROPOSITIONS H AND J:
GROWTH MANAGEMENT ELEMENT AND CITIZENS' INITIATIVE

As we reported to you on September 6, 1988, we have had numerous meetings with Citizens for Limited Growth regarding changes in the ballot language for Propositions H and J.

While we again indicate there is no legal error or omission in the existing ballot proposals contained in the election ordinance enacted on August 9, 1988 (Elections Code section 10015), the voters face two (2) complicated land use propositions. Therefore to afford a direct comparison between the measures we have revised the measures as provided in the attached Exhibits. Exhibits A and B are the existing provisions with Exhibits C and D showing the revised language underlined for ease of comparison. Amended versions of the elections ordinance and elections consolidation resolution containing these amendments are before you as item 409.

Respectfully submitted,
JOHN W. WITT
City Attorney
