

RESOLUTION NO. 201282

NOV 19 1970

WHEREAS, DeGraff Austin was born seventy-five years ago in Fallbrook, California and has lived his entire life in San Diego County; and

WHEREAS, he has had an exciting and colorful career, starting as class president of San Diego High School, continuing through World War I as an aviator; and

WHEREAS, he began his long and distinguished public service career in 1942; and

WHEREAS, during this more than quarter century, he served as a San Diego Councilman, United States Collector of Customs and, for more than twenty years, a San Diego County Supervisor, during which time he served seven terms as Chairman of the Board of Supervisors; and

WHEREAS, he has been an active participant and leader in a great number of governmental, social and religious societies and associations; and

WHEREAS, his longevity and scope of service are exceeded only by his enthusiasm and the quality of his judgment, wisdom and objectivity; and

WHEREAS, he is now retiring from this important position and all City officials wish to express their sincere appreciation for his friendship and accomplishment. NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that the Honorable DeGraff Austin is hereby commended for his outstanding and dedicated service on behalf of all the citizens
