DESCRIPTION: Railroad crossing gates

I have reviewed the above named project and have determined that all or a portion of the total cost is eligible for financing from gas tax funds in accordance with the current GUIDELINES RELATIVE TO GAS TAX EXPENDITURES ON STREETS AND ROADS published by the State Controller in that:

FOR CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROJECTS (including assessment projects):

1.  It involves acquisition of right of way and/or construction (including design) on the City's Select Street System.
2. Right of Way (check one)
  - All land to be acquired is eligible for gas tax financing.
  - Only a portion of the land to be acquired is eligible for gas tax financing. See attached breakdown of proposed funding.
3. Construction including landscaping (check one)
  - All items of construction are eligible for gas tax financing because they are on the Select Street System and are exclusively for highway purposes. No ineligible work such as utilities or ornamental lighting are included in the project.
  - Only a portion of the construction items are eligible for gas tax financing because some work is either not on the Select Street System or involves improvements for other than highway purposes such as utilities or ornamental lighting. See attached breakdown of eligible and ineligible items and proposed funding.
4.  No items of work proposed for gas tax financing are of a maintenance category but are all classified as new construction or reconstruction items.

OR MAINTENANCE PROJECTS (check one)

- All items of work are of a maintenance category and are eligible for gas tax financing because they are exclusively for preservation and upkeep of the existing constructed condition of streets or roads.
- Only a portion of the items of work are eligible for gas tax financing as maintenance of existing streets or roads. See attached breakdown of eligible and ineligible items and proposed funding.
