

RESOLUTION NO. 204600

JAN 6 1972

WHEREAS, it is the policy of The City of San Diego to prevent and eliminate blight by the encouragement of sound development and redevelopment by private enterprise with public cooperation and assistance where necessary; and

WHEREAS, the City Manager's Office, Planning Department, Inspection Department, Community Development Department and other City departments have worked together to develop a program for the prevention and elimination of blight in the City of San Diego; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary to file such a program, known as a "Workable Program for Community Improvement," with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development in order to continue eligibility for private developers and nonprofit organizations to obtain favorable FHA-insured loans, the current program certification expiring March 1, 1972; and

WHEREAS, this Council is of the opinion that the Workable Program for Community Improvement for 1972 and 1973, filed in the office of the City Clerk as Document No. 738594 should be adopted in the interest of the public of San Diego; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, as follows:

That the Workable Program for Community Improvement for The City of San Diego for 1972 and 1973, on file in the office of the City Clerk as Document No. 738594, be and the same is hereby approved and adopted, and the City Manager is hereby authorized and empowered to forward copies to the Department of Housing and Urban Development of the United States Government.
