

RESOLUTION NO. 208869 SEP 20 1973

WHEREAS, traffic accidents present one of the greatest threats to human life in the nation; and

WHEREAS, this threat cuts across the socio-economic spectrum of our community and touches each and every one of us; and

WHEREAS, the resulting toll in terms of needless loss of life, destruction of property, and individual suffering and anguish is unacceptable to all of us; and

WHEREAS, we believe that each of us can help reduce this terrible toll by accepting our responsibility and individually extending our courtesy to one another whether as a motorist, pedestrian or bicyclist; and

WHEREAS, we propose to join with other citizens throughout the State of California in rededicating ourselves to traffic safety by participating in a series of special emphasis safety programs in the months ahead;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of The City of San Diego hereby declares September 24 through 30, 1973 as "Traffic Safety Week" and requests that every citizen work together to bring about safer traffic conditions within the City of San Diego.
