

RESOLUTION NO. 209459

DEC 13 1973

WHEREAS, the University Community Plan was unanimously adopted by City Council Resolution No. 203808 on September 23, 1971; and

WHEREAS, the residents of South University City have formed a representative group known as the University City Precise Planning Committee and said Committee has the support of the University City Community Council, the University Community Forum and the University of California at San Diego; and

WHEREAS, the University City Precise Planning Committee was formed for the purpose of developing and implementing a Precise Plan for South University City, being the area bounded on the north by the A. T. & S. F. Railroad, the San Clemente Canyon Natural Park on the south, I-5 on the west and I-805 on the east; and

WHEREAS, the University City Precise Planning Committee has requested the services of the Planning Department in the development of, and the Managerial Departments in the implementation of a Precise Plan; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, as follows:

1. The Planning Department is directed to provide the requested assistance in developing the Precise Plan for South University City, and the City Manager in the implementation thereof upon its adoption.

2. The Planning Commission is requested to include the Precise Plan in the Department's fiscal 1975 work program and to modify the current work program to the extent feasible within existing appropriations to permit work on said Precise Planning program to commence as soon as possible.

APPROVED: JOHN W. WITT, City Attorney
