

ORDINANCE NO. 11425
(New Series)

OCT 24 1974

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING SECTION 26.32 OF CHAPTER II, ARTICLE 6, OF THE SAN DIEGO MUNICIPAL CODE RELATING TO THE COMMUNITY RELATIONS BOARD.

BE IT ORDAINED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, as follows:

Section 1. That Section 26.32 of Chapter II, Article 6, of the San Diego Municipal Code be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 26.32 CITY OF SAN DIEGO COMMUNITY RELATIONS BOARD

A. PURPOSE AND INTENT

It is the purpose and intent of this ordinance to establish a Community Relations Board under authority of Section 43(a) of the Charter of The City of San Diego which shall consult and advise the Mayor, Council and City Manager, as well as various cooperating elements of the criminal justice system whose activities affect the residents of the City, including but not limited to law enforcement agencies, the judiciary and organized Bar, and agencies concerned with confinement, probation, parole and rehabilitation of convicted persons.

The Community Relations Board shall endeavor to promote and encourage increased cooperation and coordination between groups and agencies which are a part of the criminal justice system and residents of the City, and to develop and conduct activities directed toward increasing awareness in the community of the rights and responsibilities of citizens in the maintenance of law and order and the administration of justice.

It is the further intent of this ordinance to create an effective avenue by which the community can participate in the formulation of policies, practices and programs which will make law and justice activities more effective and responsive to the needs of the City, and that a means be established thereby to foster and encourage active citizen participation in the law and justice system and to develop recommendations and programs toward this end.

B. CREATION AND APPOINTMENTS

There is hereby created a Community Relations Board which shall consist of twenty-four (24) members who shall serve without compensation. The members shall be appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the Council. The members shall serve two-year (2-year) terms and each member shall serve until his successor is duly appointed and qualified. The members shall be appointed in such a manner that the terms of twelve (12) members shall expire in each year. The expiration date shall be March 1. During March of each year, the Mayor may designate one (1) member as chairman; however, in the absence of such designation, the Board shall, on or after April 15, select from among their members a chairman.

C. MEMBERSHIP

All members of the Community Relations Board shall be residents of the City of San Diego. The membership composition shall be as follows:

1. Six (6) members shall be selected from among the residents of the Model Neighborhood. The Model Cities Citizens Advisory Board shall be responsible for submitting the names of qualified residents from said area to the Mayor for consideration in making appointments under this subsection.

2. One (1) member shall be selected from an institution of higher learning.

3. Two (2) members shall be full-time employees of the San Diego Police Department, one (1) being a patrolman serving the Model Neighborhood and the other a ranking officer.

4. Six (6) members shall be selected from among the professional areas of corrections, probation, the judiciary, the organized Bar, law enforcement, rehabilitation or other law and justice-related fields.

5. Nine (9) members shall be selected from the City as follows: each Council district shall submit the names of three (3) residents of its district for consideration by the Mayor.

The Mayor shall also have the power to appoint one (1) citizen of the City to be a member of the Board.

6. The City Manager and the City Attorney, or their designated representatives, shall be ex officio members of the Board.

D. SCOPE OF AUTHORITY AND ACTIVITIES

1. In order to assist the Community Relations Board in carrying out its functions, the City shall, subject to the availability of budgeted funds and in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Service System, provide a full-time staff as well as the services of consultants where the Board deems appropriate. The full-time staff shall be employees of the City subject to all Civil Service rules and regulations.

2. The Civil Service Commission of The City of San Diego shall in consultation and cooperation with the Board and by appropriate classification study, establish and prescribe the duties and functions of the staff members.

3. The Community Relations Board is empowered to adopt and amend, by two-thirds vote of its membership, bylaws governing the conduct of its meetings and activities, the establishment of subcommittees, and such other rules as may be necessary for the performance of its functions.

4. The Community Relations Board is hereby empowered to study any area of law and justice it deems appropriate and to make recommendations thereon.

The Community Relations Board will not function as a police review board; that is, the Community Relations Board will not adjudicate individual citizen's complaints against individual police officers or impose disciplinary action. The Community Relations Board may, however, request the representatives of agencies comprising the criminal justice system to appear before the Board and that said agencies submit documents relating to their operations to the Board in accordance with the provisions of Article XIV, Section 215 of the Charter of The City of San Diego.

By way of example and not by way of limitation, the Community Relations Board may:

- a. Study and review training in human relations and other areas given to members of the criminal justice system;
- b. Study current hiring and promotion practices of criminal justice agencies

c. Study and define community expectations of representatives of the criminal justice system;

d. Study methods and procedures followed by the criminal justice system in common and recurring situations and in its contacts with residents of the City;

e. Act in an educational capacity to communicate information dealing with the rights and responsibilities of citizens relevant to law and justice;

f. Study suggestions made to it by agencies, groups or individuals concerned with the improvement of community relations and the improvement of the quality of life in general for all residents of the City.

5. Inasmuch as the San Diego Police Department is a major agency among those comprising the criminal justice system and has the greatest degree of continuing contact with the citizens of the City, the Community Relations Board, to fulfill its general purposes, shall:

a. Supply the Civil Service Commission with current lists of nominees for membership on all Civil Service oral boards conducted for the hiring or promotion of police officers. The lists will be composed of individuals who the Board believes adequately reflect the City's and the Model Neighborhood Community's idea of a good police officer.

b. Review all existing police facilities in the City and examine all plans for the establishment of any new police facility in the City prior to its initiation, and shall make recommendations concerning:

(1) Their establishment and continuance;

(2) The assignment of their ranking officers; and

(3) Their operations and conduct.

c. Make recommendations concerning the transfer of any police officer out of a neighborhood whose assignment therein is deemed by the Community Relations Board not to be conducive to good community relations, and, further, to encourage the retention of those officers in a neighborhood who are considered by the Community Relations Board to be attuned to the special needs of that neighborhood as they pertain to law enforcement.
