

Resolution No. 221388 JUL 12 1978

WHEREAS, 1979 is the 20th anniversary of the Declaration of the Rights of the Child; and

WHEREAS, On December 21, 1976, the General Assembly of the United Nations passed a resolution declaring 1979 the International Year of the Child; and

WHEREAS, despite increased emphasis within the international community on development and economic cooperation, there remain an appallingly large number of children who lack even the rudimentary necessities of life; and

WHEREAS, the International Year of the Child should be an occasion to reaffirm, not by words alone but by deeds, that the well-being of today's children is the concern of all people everywhere and that it is inseparably linked with the peace and prosperity of tomorrow's world; and

WHEREAS, the main objective of the International Year of the Child is to encourage raising significantly the level of services benefiting children on a permanent basis; and

WHEREAS, the International Year of the Child offers a rare opportunity to demonstrate that intensified public and governmental awareness of children's needs can lead to concrete action of immense and, above all, lasting benefit to mankind's future--its children; NOW, THEREFORE,
