

WHEREAS, the United States Marine Corps has played a vital role in defending freedom, justice and equality; and

WHEREAS, the Montford Point Marine Association of California is the first Black Marine Organization formed in the United States; and

WHEREAS, since its founding in 1965 the Montford Point Marine Association of California has been serving the community, the people of San Diego County and the nation as a whole through civic projects and promotion of better understanding for all peoples; and

WHEREAS, on November 11, 1978, the Association will hold its Annual Marine Corps Ball at the Holiday Inn, Embarcadero, San Diego; and

WHEREAS, the proceeds from this activity will go toward supporting deserving and needy high school graduates for college educations; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that The City of San Diego honors the Montford Point Marine Association of California and commends the former, retired and active duty military personnel of the Association for their contributions to the community of San Diego.
