

Resolution of the City Council City of San Diego

R. 79-2475
JUN 4 1979

223624

WHEREAS, Rohr Industries, Incorporated, has established a tradition during its 40-year history of civic involvement in programs beneficial to the citizens of San Diego and civic institutions; and

WHEREAS, many of Rohr Industries' civic efforts have been directed toward informing the public, particularly through its support of the San Diego Aerospace Museum and its historical and educational exhibits, a goal which is also a high priority of the City Council and the City Administration; and

WHEREAS, Rohr Industries responded with generosity in the spirit of cooperation for the public good to the City's invitation for public service sponsorship, making possible the printing of 185,000 copies of a fire safety message for distribution with City utility bills; and

WHEREAS, this partnership between the City and Rohr Industries has enhanced the ability of the City to disseminate important information to its citizens while conserving tax monies; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of the City of San Diego, on behalf of the people of this City, expresses its deep appreciation to

for its farsightedness and civic generosity in assisting the City Government in keeping the public informed through sponsorship of a utility bill leaflet on fire safety.
