

RESOLUTION NO.

R-253200

(R. 81-1076)

DEC 9 1980

WHEREAS, an ongoing dedication to local economic, social and cultural growth has been demonstrated by Home Federal Savings of San Diego since 1934, establishing it as a valuable partner with the City of San Diego in the work and progress of safety and security, the arts, social services, health care and the environment; and

WHEREAS, civic projects of Home Federal Savings of San Diego in recent years have included a substantial contribution to the reconstruction of the Old Globe Theatre in Balboa Park, underwriting of a number of America's Finest City Week events, donation of educational aids for elementary school children for use by the San Diego Police Department, and sponsorship of a major exhibition at the San Diego Museum of Art; and

WHEREAS, Home Federal Savings, through a generous contribution in response to the City's invitation for public service sponsorship, has now made it possible for the City of San Diego to distribute emergency telephone stickers with potential life-saving information to more than 180,000 household and businesses in the City while conserving tax monies; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Council of the City of San Diego, on behalf of the people of this City, expresses its deep appreciation to the officers and employees of Home Federal Savings of San Diego both for their many acts of civic generosity over the years and for Home Federal's most recent contribution to the City's efforts to disseminate vital information to its citizens.
