RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 255744

Adopted on JAN 23 1982

WHEREAS, National University, founded in 1971 by Dr. David Chigos as a pioneering model of twenty-first century higher education, has recently completed its tenth year of operation to the citizens of San Diego; and

WHEREAS, under the aggressive leadership of Dr. Chigos, National University has grown to be the third largest private university in the State of California; and

WHEREAS, the distinguished faculty of National University is providing mature adults with an opportunity to maximize their full professional potential in earning their undergraduate and graduate degrees in Business Administration, Education and Public Administration, as well as Doctorates in Jurisprudence; and

WHEREAS, since 1971, thousands of San Diego City residents have received their college education from National University; and

WHEREAS, National University has contributed greatly to San Diego's community, civic and humanitarian organizations; and

WHEREAS, National University has set an example of new concept education excellence for universities throughout the United States to model themselves after; and

WHEREAS, National University's unprecedented pioneering record of achievement and growth towards serving the mature working adult population of San Diego has received national and international recognition; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, that The City of San Diego congratulates National University on its tenth anniversary and wishes the University and faculty every success in the next decade of operation.
