

(R-83-487)

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 257253

Adopted on OCT 4 1982

WHEREAS, a labor dispute currently affecting the construction industry has interrupted delivery of the City's supply of ready-mix concrete and additives from its contract source (Nelson & Sloan Co.); and

WHEREAS, in order to maintain necessary utility repairs and General Services street repair operations the City has purchased ready-mix concrete and additives from other sources on a day-by-day basis since September 20, 1982, at a cost of approximately $3,000 per day; and

WHEREAS, the purchase of ready-mix concrete and additives are required to repair and maintain the streets, the water distribution system, the sewage collection system and other public works; and

WHEREAS, ready-mix concrete and additives are required on a daily basis and interruption of the supply will result in increased traffic hazards, further pavement failure, interruption of traffic and interruption of repairs to water and sewer facilities; and

WHEREAS, these repair operations are necessary for the public's welfare and safety, and interruption of essential municipal services would be detrimental to the public; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that the public interest demands the immediate purchase of ready-mix concrete and additives without advertising for competitive bids as authorized by San Diego City Charter Section 94, in order to safeguard public property, health and safety and to repair the City streets and sewers.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Purchasing Agent is authorized to purchase on the open market, after seeking competitive prices, the ready-mix concrete and additives which are unavailable from current contract sources because of the labor dispute and which are required to maintain essential public services for those programs directly affecting the public welfare and safety, commencing September 20, 1982, for a 30-day period or until the current construction industry labor disputes are settled, whichever comes first, such purchases not to exceed $200,000.
