

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 263149

ADOPTED ON MAY 13 1985

WHEREAS, the community of Kensington was officially established on November 25, 1910 as Kensington Park; and

WHEREAS, the community of Kensington grew to include Kensington Manor, Kensington Heights, Kensington Villa and Kensington Point; and

WHEREAS, all of Kensington had become annexed to The City of San Diego by 1936; and

WHEREAS, for seventy-five years, Kensington has been home of many of San Diego's finest citizens including community leaders in medicine, law, government and industry; and

WHEREAS, the residents of Kensington have since 1910 displayed great civic pride and interest in both The City of San Diego and their own community; and

WHEREAS, this pride has been most recently reflected during the past three years by such community events as the Memorial Day celebration known as "Holiday at Home;" and

WHEREAS, the Kensington Social and Athletic Club supported by the Kensington Talmadge Community Association will celebrate Kensington's Diamond Jubilee on May 27, 1985; and

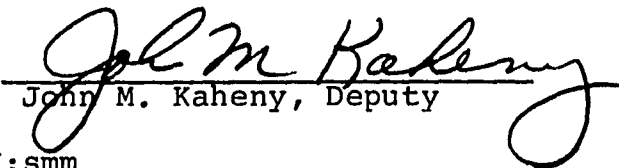

WHEREAS, this celebration will include a relay race, parade, bazaar, refreshments and entertainment; and

WHEREAS, this third annual "Holiday Day at Home" celebration reflects the community spirit for which Kensington is well known and serves as an example for other innercity communities; and

WHEREAS, numerous civic-minded volunteers will band together and expand great energy to produce an outstanding community event; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that this City Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, hereby expresses its admiration, gratitude and appreciation to the residents of the Kensington community for their civic achievement and wishes their community a happy anniversary and best wishes for the next seventy-five years, and does proclaim May 27, 1985 as "Kensington Day" in The City of San Diego.
