

(R-87-2321)

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 268407

ADOPTED ON MAY 26 1987

WHEREAS, the California State World Trade Commission was established by the State Legislature in 1982 to expand international trade to promote cultural awareness, and to encourage economic growth in the State of California; and

WHEREAS, the California State World Trade Commission is of vital importance and assistance to small and medium-sized California businesses through their support of the California Export Finance Program and other effective export promotional activities; and

WHEREAS, James D. Lutton, Vice President of Solar Turbines, Inc., served on the Advisory Council for the California State World Trade Commission from March 1983 to December 1985; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lutton was elected by the Advisory Council in December 1985 to serve as a member of the California State World Trade Commission representing not only the San Diego region, but also one of California's leading export firms; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lutton's outstanding qualifications have enabled him to provide valuable representation for the manufacturing and export interests which are vital to the California economy; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that this Council concurs with the San Diego County Board of Supervisors and the International Trade Commission of San Diego

County in supporting the reappointment of James D. Lutten to the California State World Trade Commission.
