

(R-88-2002)

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 270747

ADOPTED ON APR 25 1988

WHEREAS, Kaiser Permanente offers its health plan members the assurance of the most highly skilled and well-trained professionals; and

WHEREAS, Kaiser Permanente nurses play a vital role in the quality of care the medical program offers to its patients; and

WHEREAS, nurses' functions in new and unique roles are rapidly changing in our health care system with ever increasing specialization and professional status; and

WHEREAS, the role of the nurse today is that of a true professional educated for clinical practice and patient care assessment, providing evaluation, monitoring and support service for patients, as well as hands-on care; and

WHEREAS, nurses are contributing more to patient care today than ever before, performing functions that at one time only physicians could perform; and

WHEREAS, today's nurse is the liaison between the patient and other members of the health care team, practicing the profession with all the scientific skills available to the 20th century practitioner; and

WHEREAS, nurses touch their patient, with their hands and with their hearts; and

WHEREAS, a big part of what nursing is all about is the warmth of knowing that someone is caring; and

WHEREAS, keeping the human connection is what sets nurses apart from other health care practitioners; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that this Council hereby commends the nurses at Kaiser Permanente for the major role they play in fostering the longstanding and proven commitment to the highest quality medical services for its membership.
