

(R-90-472)

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 274387
ADOPTED ON SEP 18 1989

WHEREAS, the California Conservation Corps has contributed greatly to the quality of life of San Diego by participating extensively in conservation efforts of all types; and

WHEREAS, these efforts include reseedling of our burned out canyons, flood control, trail building, brush clearing, community beautification projects, and restoring historic buildings; and

WHEREAS, in addition to their outstanding contributions to the community, the California Conservation Corps provides the equally important function of providing young people between the ages of 18 and 23 the opportunity to learn skills, good work habits, responsibility and the importance of getting along with others; and

WHEREAS, the combination of community project development and employment training is a very positive thing for the City of San Diego as we continue our youth diversion efforts while at the same time, improve and beautify our neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, upon completion of service in the California Conservation Corps, these young men and women corpsmembers make up an excellent personnel resource that should be used to not only enhance business, but to further their own personal development objectives; and

WHEREAS, the employment potential of these corpsmembers is the "best kept secret in town", the California Conservation Corps is sponsoring an employer's seminar to allow the business community to know and experience first hand, this valuable community resource; and

WHEREAS, on Wednesday, September 20, 1989, the California Conservation Corps employers' seminar will introduce San Diego's business community to "The Pride of California" so that the Corps and area employers will benefit each other through their cooperative efforts; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that the California Conservation Corps, the San Diego District-California Conservation Corps Community Advisory Board, and the sponsors and participating employers of this seminar be commended for their efforts to bring together business and corpsmembers and that the employment of these fine young people be encouraged as a sure way to better our City.
