

(R-90-1141)

RESOLUTION NUMBER R-275072

ADOPTED ON FEB 05 1990

WHEREAS, the County of San Diego is the fourth most populous county in the United States, and the City of San Diego is the sixth largest city in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the increasingly diverse population residing in San Diego County affords the variety of interests and pursuits which are necessary to support professional sporting events; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of San Diego County have shown outstanding support to the National Football League's San Diego Chargers, Major League Baseball's San Diego Padres, and the Major Indoor Soccer League's San Diego Sockers which are the diverse professional teams currently located in San Diego; and

WHEREAS, San Diego was lauded as the host of Super Bowl XXII, the internationally recognized culmination of the 1988 professional football season; and

WHEREAS, San Diego is again being given serious consideration by the National Football League in its search for a host for the 1993 Super Bowl and its accompanying events; and

WHEREAS, San Diego County is the only major metropolitan area of its size in the United States which does not currently host a National Basketball Association franchise or a National Hockey League franchise; and

WHEREAS, there presently exists qualified individuals who have expressed a keen interest in locating such franchises in San Diego County; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, hereby requests that the Commissioners of the National Hockey League and the National Basketball Association grant the approval necessary to operate their respective franchises in San Diego.
