

(R-90-1039)

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 275339

ADOPTED ON MAR 19 '90

WHEREAS, our Mexican police and fire liaison officers have on occasion requested City Council approval to donate certain types of supplies, obsolete police, fire or lifeguard equipment items to Mexican Government authorities; and

WHEREAS, under the existing system City Council approval is required for each separate gift, which represents an inefficient use of Council time when only obsolete items of a small aggregate dollar value are involved; and

WHEREAS, the proposed system would authorize the City Manager to approve donations aggregating $1,000 each in value per type of item per year; and

WHEREAS, the recommended action is in the best interest of the City because it will help strengthen the existing spirit of cooperation and mutual aid between our police, fire or lifeguard authorities; and

WHEREAS, there would be nominal revenue loss to the City, since these items would otherwise be disposed of at public auction where they normally attract little interest and yield minimal revenue; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that the City Manager be and he is hereby authorized to donate as mutual aid to bordering Mexican Government authorities miscellaneous surplus items of used or obsolete police, fire or lifeguard equipment with an aggregate value of no more than $1,000 per gift.
