(R-92-8)

RESOLUTION NUMBER R-278663

ADOPTED ON SEP 23 1991

WHEREAS, children are our City's future; and

WHEREAS, it is incumbent upon everyone to do their part to provide a safe and nurturing environment in which these future citizens will grow and learn; and

WHEREAS, the Child Care Advisory Board, comprised of members of San Diego's business community, child care professionals, school administrators and government was established in 1989 to advocate for increased quality, affordability, accessibility and employer sponsored child care in San Diego; and

WHEREAS, encouraging the establishment of public/private partnerships between business and child care providers has helped to address the child care crisis in San Diego by bringing child care closer to parents' homes and/or places of business; and

WHEREAS, the Child Care Advisory Board has worked with the City's Planning Department to streamline zoning in residential, commercial and industrial areas in an effort to increase accessibility of child care and simplify the permit process for potential child care providers to serve San Diego; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that July 15 be and is hereby declared to be "Child Care Awareness Day" in San Diego.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council recognizes the members of the Child Care Advisory Board for their expertise and their diligent work in advocating for and helping to address the need for child care in this City.
