RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 279311

ADOPTED ON JAN 21 1992

WHEREAS, America finds itself in a recession, rapidly headed for a depression; and

WHEREAS, the President of the United States of America, and his administration, are called upon to take a more positive attitude toward funding domestic programs at home; and

WHEREAS, our cities suffer from high unemployment, high dropout rates, high cost of health care and a growing number of homeless people; and

WHEREAS, the private sector will not be able to make a sufficient impact on unemployment because during a recession the demand for products and services are significantly reduced; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, as follows:

1. That this Council hereby supports Councilmember Stevens' resolution to petition the United States Congress and the federal government to reinstate the Public Employment Program (PEP), as authorized under the Emergency Employment Act of 1971.

2. That this Council hereby directs the City's Washington, D.C. legislative advocates to express this support to appropriate members of Congress and the President.
