

(R-93-1524)

RESOLUTION NUMBER R-281789

ADOPTED ON APR 19 1993

WHEREAS, the San Diego State University Suntrakker is a solar powered electric car project designed for low energy consumption and minimal pollution; and

WHEREAS, the San Diego State University Suntrakker will be raced in the 1993 World Solar Challenge in Australia by students who use wheelchairs in this grueling 2,000 mile race which attracts many international competitors and has the attention of media worldwide; and

WHEREAS, fifty students from the Colleges of Business, Engineering, and Professional Studies and Fine Arts have worked together in an effort to address the worldwide problem of energy use; and

WHEREAS, these San Diego State University students have demonstrated extreme foresight and ingenuity in researching and developing this very momentous project; and

WHEREAS, the combined efforts of these remarkable students will be shared with other students throughout San Diego schools and shared with future generations of engineers and business people, this being the real value of education; and

WHEREAS, the students of San Diego State University and the solar powered San Diego State University Suntrakker will be representing the United States in a competition among the world's elite; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that this Council, in the spirit of advancing green technology and the continuing San Diego Earth Day commitment, hereby celebrates April 19, 1993 as San Diego State University Suntrakker Day throughout San Diego.
