

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 284554

ADOPTED ON SEP 12 1994

WHEREAS, the importance of the American family has become increasingly more diminished over the past several years; and

WHEREAS, the important role that the family unit represents toward overall improvement of each community is recognized as indispensable to an orderly and law abiding society; and

WHEREAS, the family unit is the most common denominator necessary in the successful building of a community and nation; and

WHEREAS, respect for family values continues to erode along with the ever increasing breakup of the family; and

WHEREAS, the family should not rely upon government to provide solutions to the problems it faces; and

WHEREAS, the family unit can be the leader in reducing sexually transmitted diseases and teenage pregnancy through parental teaching of abstinence to the children in each family; and

WHEREAS, the family unit should be allowed to prosper and grow without any interference from government at any level, both in social as well as economic terms; and

WHEREAS, The Center For Family Values was specifically organized to promote Family Values at the local, state, and national level, and the Center is now the official sponsor for "National Family Values Day"; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that September 10, 1994, be and is hereby proclaimed to be
"NATIONAL FAMILY VALUES DAY" in The City of San Diego.
