

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 286336

ADOPTED ON SEP 18 1995

WHEREAS, Hank "Dirty Harry" Callahan is known to every first time visitor to the City Box for his quick and dirty nickel tour of the facility; and

WHEREAS, Hank, during the slow middle innings, will entertain the unwary visitor who wanders back from the seating area with every bad, borscht-belt-style comedy routine, including Henny Youngman's immortal setup line, "Take my wife ... please;" and

WHEREAS, "Dirty Harry" Callahan served a long and distinguished career with the United States Postal Service; and

WHEREAS, Hank wisely decided to leave the cold climate of the East Coast for the sunshine of San Diego in 1956; and

WHEREAS, Hank Callahan has been married to his partner in life, June, for 54 years this month; and

WHEREAS, he has presided over the comings and goings of the City Box in San Diego Jack Murphy Stadium for the last 15 of his 20 years as a Stadium employee providing outstanding service with a twinkle in his eyes; and

WHEREAS, Hank's special attention to guests has been particularly noted by organizations such as Children's Hospital whose young patients have appreciated his extra care and attention during their visits to the City Box; NOW, THEREFORE, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, hereby commends Hank "Dirty Harry" Callahan on the occasion of his retirement from the Stadium and in appreciation for his outstanding service.

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that Monday, September 18, 1995 be and is hereby proclaimed to be "HANK 'DIRTY HARRY' CALLAHAN DAY" in The City of in San Diego.
