

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 288344

ADOPTED ON FEB 18 1997

WHEREAS, Joe Street, having reached the respectable age of 80 years young, continues to be an example to us all through his generosity, hard work, wisdom and sage advise that "nobody has ever died from overwork;" and

WHEREAS, Joe is a pioneer in creating and expanding the business of automobile recycling since the days of the Ford "Model T" by virtue of being the first in San Diego to sell used parts, the first to offer free delivery and the first to make the telephone an integral part of his business; and

WHEREAS, Joe has always shown his love for The City of San Diego and its institutions, as exemplified by his being third in line for Chargers' tickers in their very first season, and has continued to tenaciously guard and faithfully renew his season tickets; and

WHEREAS, Joe is part of the fabric of San Diego, having done everything from breaking horses for John D. Spreckels to installing the first streets over the salty mud flats of Pacific Beach; and

WHEREAS, Street & Sons Auto Wrecking and Street Properties continues to flourish providing jobs and important services to the citizens of San Diego and beyond;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, hereby designates Saturday, February 22, 1997 to be "JOE STREET DAY" in The City of San Diego.
