

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 288506

ADOPTED ON APR 07 1997

WHEREAS, the education and training of San Diego's workforce has been and continues to be an integral factor of economic growth and vocational opportunity; and

WHEREAS, Kelsey-Jenney College has been successfully providing business education and technical training to the San Diego community for 110 years; and

WHEREAS, the expansion of Kelsey-Jenney College has paralleled that of San Diego's economy and business development for more than a century; and

WHEREAS, graduates of Kelsey-Jenney College have been and continue to be employed by numerous corporations and organizations, making them an essential part of San Diego's remarkable commercial achievement; and

WHEREAS, as an independent, nonprofit business college, Kelsey-Jenney was founded in The City of San Diego in 1887 and is now a part of our City's grand heritage; and

WHEREAS, on April 11, 1997, Kelsey-Jenney College will celebrate its 110th year of continuous service to the San Diego business community with a reception and dinner at the San Diego Historical Society's Museum to honor alumni and distinguished San Diegans; and

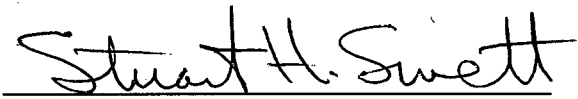

WHEREAS, in recognition of this significant milestone, Kelsey-Jenney College has established five $10,000 scholarships to benefit participants of the St. Vincent de Paul's STEP program; and

WHEREAS, these scholarships are named in honor of five successful and distinguished local women whose achievements will hereafter serve as role models for future Kelsey-Jenney College graduates: Rosalia Salinas, Khalada Salaam Alaji, Georgia Borthwick, Helen M. Banner Snow, and Dolly Billings Copeland; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, does hereby proclaim the week of April 7 through 11, 1997 to be "KELSEY-JENNEY COLLEGE WEEK" in San Diego, in honor of this remarkable institution's 110 years of education and service to the community.
