

(R-99-1007)

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 291365

ADOPTED ON MAR 22 1999

WHEREAS, the Central Animal Shelter, located at 5480 Gaines Street, is operated by the County on 1.75 acres of City-owned land under a 37-year lease expiring in 2008; and

WHEREAS, the City also owns about 2.91 acres of vacant land, known as Site 119, contiguous with the Central Animal Shelter; and

WHEREAS, the existing improvements at the Central Animal Shelter have become inadequate in terms of size, condition, and design, requiring major refurbishment or preferably complete reconstruction; and

WHEREAS, the "Citizens' Panel to Build a New Central Animal Shelter" has recommended the City designate the existing Central Animal Shelter at 5480 Gaines Street, together with the adjacent City-owned land known as Site 119, for reconstruction and expansion of a new Central Animal Shelter; and

WHEREAS, on February 17, 1999, the Council Standing Committee on Natural Resources and Culture voted unanimously to support the Citizen's Panel recommendation;
NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that the City Manager is authorized to study the feasibility of the site for the proposed project and bring recommended actions to the City Council for review.
