

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 292383

ADOPTED ON NOV 01 1999

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA, RECOMMENDING THAT PAROLE BE DENIED TO CONVICTED MURDERED DANNY SAUL ROSALES (CDC-22367)

WHEREAS, on January 14, 1979, Danny Saul Rosales,, while under the influence, attacked four young women, Barbara Romero, Lilia Vasquez, Olivia De La Rosa, and Alice De La Rosa with a hunting knife; and

WHEREAS, one of the women, Barbara Romero, died of her wounds; and

WHEREAS, two of the other three young women suffered serious abdominal injuries depriving them of ever bearing children; and

WHEREAS, Danny Saul Rosales was subsequently convicted and sentenced to 15 years to life for murder of Barbara Romero; and

WHEREAS, prison diagnostic studies state that authorities diagnosed Danny Saul Rosales as an unprincipled and antisocial personality with marked features of inadequacy who accepted no responsibility for the attack and appeared to feel it was fully justified, expressing no remorse for his actions; and

WHEREAS, according to a prisoner evaluation report prepared by counselors at the California Men's Colony, Danny Saul Rosales would "probably pose an unpredictable degree of threat to the public;" and

WHEREAS, Deputy District Attorney Jim Jacobs who was in charge of prosecuting the case against Danny Saul Rosales has stated, "The fact that he (Rosales) was under the influence and blaming this attack on that, shows that he will always be a danger to the community;" and

WHEREAS, the date of the next parole hearing for Danny Saul Rosales is November 1, 1999; and

WHEREAS, paroled felons can be relocated to ANY community WITHOUT notification to the community at large; and

WHEREAS, families and friends of murder victims often suffer a lifetime of anguish and fear of being re-victimized; and

WHEREAS, law abiding citizens deserve a safe living environment; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego, that this Council does hereby find, order and resolve as follows:

1. That the Parole Board is hereby notified that it is the will of the City Council of The City of San Diego that Danny Saul Rosales remain in prison at this time.
2. That Parole be DENIED to Danny Saul Rosales.
