

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 293028

ADOPTED ON MAY 1 2000

WHEREAS, Lamb's Players Theatre was originally based in Minnesota and incorporated as a nonprofit 501 (c) (3) organization, and operated for over 15 years as an acclaimed Street Theatre troupe; and

WHEREAS, since 1978, the Resident Theatre has produced 31 world premieres, 28 San Diego premieres, and over 181 productions, Lamb's Players Theatre has grown to become an integral part of San Diego County's arts community by providing performances, educational programs, outreach projects and classes; and

WHEREAS, Lamb's Players Theatre has performed nationwide with productions that combined fast-paced contemporary comedy with medieval morality plays; and

WHEREAS, Lamb's Players Theatre's highly successful production of Tim Slover's new "Joyful Noise" marks the theatre's off-Broadway debut, with the Theatre's fans convening in New York for opening night on February 19, 2000; and

WHEREAS, Lamb's Players Theatre is now the third largest theatre in San Diego County with a staff of 44, a 2000 budget of $3.1 million, and 7,800 subscribers serving over 150,000 patrons each year; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of The City of San Diego that May 1, 2000, is hereby proclaimed to be "LAMB'S PLAYERS THEATRE DAY" and the City Council commends the theatre for its tremendous contributions to the arts community of San Diego County.
