

293074

RESOLUTION NUMBER R-

ADOPTED ON MAY 16 2000

WHEREAS, California's history is rich and diverse, evidenced by the many archaeological and historic sites identified and located throughout our state; and

WHEREAS, preservation of these sites provides educational, cultural, and economic benefits for all citizens; and

WHEREAS, archaeological sites are unique and irreplaceable remnants of California history, and we must work to ensure that these special treasures are not damaged and destroyed through the destructive activities of vandals and thieves; and

WHEREAS, the Society for California Archaeology has joined with federal, state, and local officials, local archaeological societies, private industry, and concerned citizens to enhance public awareness of the need to protect California's rich cultural heritage and our state's archaeological sites by sponsoring the Eighth Annual California Archaeology Month; and

WHEREAS, this year, California Archaeology Month will again be celebrated in conjunction with National Preservation Week by people dedicated to the preservation of our state's past; and

WHEREAS, "Bridging the Millennium" is the theme for California Archaeology Month 2000, cosponsored locally by the San Diego County Archaeology Society and the Society for California Archaeology; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, does hereby proclaim May 2000, as "CALIFORNIA

ARCHAEOLOGY MONTH” and encourages all citizens to take the time to learn more about the archaeological history of our great state and ways we can help to protect and preserve this very important part of California.

APPROVED: CASEY GWINN, City Attorney

By Stuart H. Swett
Stuart H. Swett
Deputy City Attorney

SHS:jrl
04/11/00
Or.Dept: Water
R-2000-1184
Form=r-t.frm