

RESOLUTION NUMBER 295958

ADOPTION ON JAN 15 2002

A RESOLUTION APPROVING THE USE OF LOW-INCOME HOUSING CAPITAL OUTLAY FUNDS FOR THE REPAIR AND REPLACEMENT OF STAIRWAYS AND LANDINGS AT 3222 CAMULOS STREET.

WHEREAS, the City's Low-Income Housing Capital Outlay [LIHCO] fund was established in 1979 to be used by the Housing Commission for the acquisition, construction, and other improvements to publicly-owned low-income housing developments; and

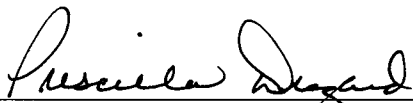

WHEREAS, the San Diego Housing Commission operates a publicly-owned affordable housing development at 3222 Camulos Street serving low-income families; and

WHEREAS, the Housing Commission has determined that capital improvements are needed to upgrade the physical condition of this housing development to insure that the project continues to be available to serve low-income families; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that it approves the use of LICO funds in the amount of $48,549 for the repair and replacement of stairways and landings at the family housing development located at 3222 Camulos Street, as more particularly describe in Housing Commission Report No. HCR01-137.
