

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 296099

ADOPTED ON FEB 25 2002

WHEREAS, the Osteopathic Center for Children was formed in 1982 as a teaching affiliate of the College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific; and

WHEREAS, one objective of the Osteopathic Center for Children is to make the unique osteopathic approach available to children with a comprehensive variety of problems that may not have been adequately resolved under the traditional medical approach; and

WHEREAS, another goal of the Osteopathic Center for Children is to provide clinical experience in this distinctive osteopathic practice to students and graduates from Colleges of Osteopathic Medicine worldwide and to conduct research to provide a deeper understanding of the nature and effectiveness of osteopathic manipulative medicine and the teachings of A.T. Still and W.G. Sutherland; and

WHEREAS, the Center began with only one physician in the "little yellow house in La Jolla," and has since moved to the beautiful 29,000 square foot center which was purchased in 1996; and

WHEREAS, the Osteopathic Center for Children and Osteopathy's Promise to Children are hosting an International Research Conference from February 6 to 9, 2001 to be attended by scientists and physicians from five nations: Russia, France, Belgium, Latvia and the United States; and

WHEREAS, a banquet held on February 9 is to honor the life work of Dr. Viola Frymann, Director of the Osteopathic Center for Children, and to celebrate the 20th Anniversary of the Center; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, does hereby recognize twenty years of wonderful service to children by the Osteopathic Center for Children and hereby proclaims February 9, 2002 to be "Osteopathic Center for Children Day" in the City of San Diego.
