

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- ~~296345~~

ADOPTED ON APR 15 2002

WHEREAS, the Institute on World Affairs was founded in 1942 at San Diego State University to bring leading participants and analysts of international affairs to San Diego; and

WHEREAS, the mission of the Institute on World Affairs is to bring an increased knowledge of world events and mutual international understanding so that good will among nations might be enhanced; and

WHEREAS, present and future world conditions require that citizens be increasingly informed on international events; and

WHEREAS, throughout the past three generations, the Institute on World Affairs has earned the reputation of being a respected and honored educational forum for the discussion of world events, and has been a gracious host to visiting international dignitaries; and

WHEREAS, during the past sixty years, innumerable Nobel laureates, diplomats, academics, U.N. officials, scientists, military and governmental officers, and other prominent international figures have all been brought to San Diego by the Institute; and

WHEREAS, the Institute on World Affairs be congratulated on the event of its sixtieth-year anniversary and be commended for its outstanding job of advancing international understanding and promoting goodwill between the people of San Diego and the nations of the world; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, does hereby recognize and appreciate the assistance of the Institute on World Affairs at San Diego State University, and hereby proclaims April 25, 2002, as “INSTITUTE ON WORLD AFFAIRS DAY” in the City of San Diego.
