WHEREAS, the City Council finds that:

(a) there is no present or prospective use for the public street system, for which the right-of-way was originally acquired, or for any other public use of a like nature that can be anticipated in that the right-of-way is not needed for public street, bikeway, or open space purposes; and

(b) the public will benefit from the vacation through improved utilization of land; and

(c) the vacation is not inconsistent with the General Plan or an approved Community Plan; and
