

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 298243

ADOPTED ON JUL 28 2003

WHEREAS, Carole Young graduated from San Diego State University with a Bachelor's degree in Spanish and received her Master's degree in Education from the United States International University; and

WHEREAS, Carole Young began teaching at Alexander Hamilton Elementary School in 1967, and, after returning from maternity leave, joined Ralph C. Dailard Elementary School in September 1975; and

WHEREAS, during her career in education, Carole Young has taught sixth grade, and, after receiving her Gifted and Talented Education (GATE) credential, the fifth grade GATE class at Dailard Elementary School; and

WHEREAS, Carole Young has served as a Master teacher for San Diego State University and National University students, and has been a GATE demonstration teacher for the San Diego Unified School District; and

WHEREAS, Carole Young was honored by the San Diego Urban League in 2002 for her exemplary work with students, and that same year she represented Dailard Elementary School as Teacher of the Year; and

WHEREAS, on June 16, 2003, Carole Young retired from Dailard Elementary School after over 27 years of dedicated service to her students; and

WHEREAS, Carole Young feels that as a teacher she has had an opportunity to share her passion for learning, and in that way has touched the future; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, does hereby recognize Carole Young for her outstanding role as teacher and friend to many students in our community.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that July 28, 2003, be and is hereby proclaimed to be "CAROLE YOUNG DAY" in the City of San Diego.
