

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 298618

ADOPTED ON NOV 24 2003

WHEREAS, the Balboa Park Millennium Society was founded to ensure the continued promotion of the traditions and heritage of Balboa Park during the new millennium; and

WHEREAS, increasing the public awareness of the Park through outreach, education, and collaborative promotional programs are the hallmark of the Millennium Society's efforts, and these efforts have already created a number of successful projects, which directly support and promote the activities, experiences, and attractions within the Park; and

WHEREAS, the Millennium Society will host its third annual awards luncheon on November 18, 2003, and will honor inspirational volunteers who have made significant contributions to the success of Balboa Park, and whose spirit of volunteerism and philanthropy have contributed to Balboa Park's success; and

WHEREAS, the primary honorees at this event will be Mary and Dallas Clark, who have a combined 112 years of giving and dedicated service to Balboa Park; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his service to the public throughout his distinguished career in real estate and finance, Dallas Clark has served Balboa Park through his volunteer activities as trustee emeritus and past president of the Zoological Society of San Diego, past president of the San Diego Community Foundation, trustee emeritus of The Old Globe, and a trustee of the Mingei International Museum; and

WHEREAS, in addition to her outstanding community service and support of the arts and culture, Mary Clark has served in Balboa Park on the Board of Directors and as a member of various museums and organizations, including the San Diego Natural History Museum, Museum of Man, Reuben H. Fleet Science Center, and Mingei International Museum; and among her many honors, Mary has joined with her husband, Dallas, in receiving the American Association of Museums Award for Distinguished Philanthropy, the Spirit of Volunteerism Award from the Junior League of San Diego, and the George W. Marston Award for Distinction in Civic Leadership from the San Diego Historical Society; and

WHEREAS, Mary and Dallas Clark are widely appreciated for their unwavering commitment to preserving the historical and cultural character of Balboa Park, and are sought after for counsel on many issues facing the park; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that they salute the Balboa Park Millennium Society for its dedication to Balboa Park, and congratulates the Balboa Park Millennium Society on its third annual awards luncheon.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of San Diego are proud to honor Mary and Dallas Clark for their longstanding commitment to Balboa Park and do hereby proclaim November 18, 2003, to be "MARY AND DALLAS CLARK DAY" in the City of San Diego.
