

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 298719

ADOPTED ON DEC 08 2003

WHEREAS, the 1.4 million members of the United Food and Commercial Workers Union, otherwise known as the UFCW, work efficiently in front of customers and behind the scenes in our San Diego businesses to operate our department store registers, to stock produce in our supermarket aisles, to take a child's temperature in our hospital, to slice a cut of beef before it is delivered to our grocery store, and to care for our grandparents in a nursing home; and

WHEREAS, our San Diego UFCW members have exhibited a high work ethic throughout the years, which made many local businesses a success; and

WHEREAS, our San Diego UFCW members have been leaders in providing exceptional customer service and have served as exemplary models for other business employees; and

WHEREAS, our San Diego UFCW members are committed to their jobs and are dedicated to working tirelessly to support their families; and

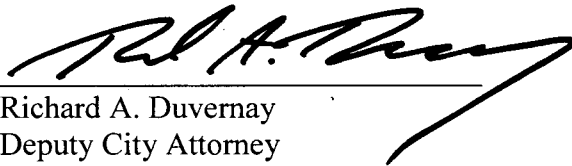

WHEREAS, our San Diego UFCW members are currently exercising their constitutional rights of free speech and free assembly in negotiations for reasonable compensation, health insurance, and pension benefits; and

WHEREAS, the members of the UFCW are an integral part of the community and deserve special recognition for their service to San Diego; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, does hereby proclaim December 8, 2003, to be “UNITED FOOD AND COMMERCIAL WORKERS DAY” in the City of San Diego.
