

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 298799

ADOPTED ON JAN 20 2004

WHEREAS, Marv Siesel was born and raised on a farm in Bellevue, Ohio, and worked in his Uncle's meat market as a teenager; and

WHEREAS, Marv served in the Navy and was stationed in San Diego as a pipe fitter, leaving the Naval service in 1959, and Marv and his wife Ursula moved back to Ohio; and

WHEREAS, Marv and Ursula have been married for close to 47 years and have raised five children and are the proud Grandparents of five Grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, Marv loves to indulge himself in his rare collection of 1955-1957 Chevy's including a newly restored El Morocco which is ready for show; and

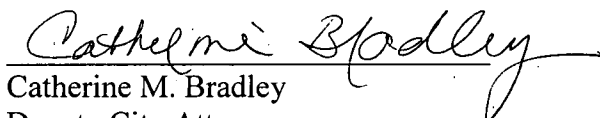

WHEREAS, Marv recently sold "Siesel's Old Fashioned Meat" store to the Cohn family which owns Iowa Meat Farms on Mission Gorge Road; and

WHEREAS, because of his love of the business, Marv took more than a year to decide whether or not to sell the business but now that he has he hopes to spend more time with his wife whom he says he has neglected over the past years working those 60-80 work weeks; NOW, THEREFORE,

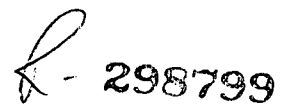

BE IT RESOLVED, by the City Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, does hereby proclaim January 11, 2004, to be

“MARV SIESEL DAY” in the City of San Diego.
