

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 299105

ADOPTED ON APR 26 2004

WHEREAS, the San Diego Architecture and Engineering Recruitment Consortium [Consortium] is a public-private partnership to encourage interest and diversity in engineering and architectural careers through recruitment, guidance, mentoring, and support; and

WHEREAS, the Consortium's membership is entirely voluntary and united in a common aim, the members of the Consortium set aside their usual competitive attitude and instead work cooperatively towards achieving our goal of increased diversity; and

WHEREAS, the Consortium has demonstrated considerable community spirit in its mentoring and guidance of San Diego Math Engineering Science Achievement program, as well as its continued professional support of National Engineering Week; and

WHEREAS, the Consortium has grown from a loosely-knit, informal group of recruitment and diversity enthusiasts into a county-wide volunteer organization with a reputation as an industry group that is dedicated to education, diversity, and recruitment. With continued support and partnership with educators, the Consortium is working on becoming a focal point for diverse engineers and architects recruitment in San Diego; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of said City, acknowledges the commitment to diversity shown by the dedicated member firms of the Consortium.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that April 26, 2004, be and is hereby proclaimed to be
“SAN DIEGO ARCHITECTURE AND ENGINEERING RECRUITMENT CONSORTIUM DAY” in the City of San Diego.
