

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 300573

ADOPTED ON JUN 27 2005

WHEREAS, the Aaron Price Fellows Program was created by philanthropist Sol Price and his family to honor the memory and the life of their son, grandson, and brother, Aaron; and

WHEREAS, the mission of the Aaron Price Fellows Program is to enrich the lives of a diverse group of high school students and turn them into responsible caring members of their community; and

WHEREAS, each year the Aaron Price Fellows Program selects qualified freshmen from four high schools in the San Diego Unified School District who commit to spending the next three years as a dedicated Fellow; and

WHEREAS, the Aaron Price Fellows Program teaches Fellows about local government, business, and cultural institutions in an effort to illustrate the significance and relevance of government and different organizations and cultures that affect our lives; and

WHEREAS, many of Aaron Price Fellows' events are geared toward exposing the Fellows to exciting career and educational opportunities; and

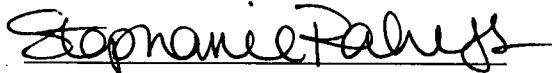

WHEREAS, since the first class of Aaron Price Fellows in 1994, over four hundred Fellows have graduated from the program to go on to many different successful career paths; and

WHEREAS, the Aaron Price Fellows Program enriches students to help build better communities throughout the City of San Diego; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, hereby proclaims the day of June 27, 2005, to be "AARON PRICE FELLOWS DAY" in the City of San Diego in recognition of the positive impact the Aaron Price Fellows Program brings to the City of San Diego.
