

(R-2006-458)

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 301056

ADOPTED ON NOV 21 2005

WHEREAS, Jack Haney is a 22 year resident of Scripps Ranch and serves as the Vice President and Director of Operations for San Diego Taylor Frager, a Taylor Construction Group Company; and

WHEREAS, Jack donated approximately $150,000 worth of time, labor, and material for the refurbishment of the Fire-Rescue Simulation Center at the Regional Fire Training Center at the Naval Training Center; and

WHEREAS, the Fire Simulation Center provides continuing education and core training for all Fire-Rescue and San Diego Medical Services Enterprise pre-hospital paramedic and emergency medical technician training in the City of San Diego; and

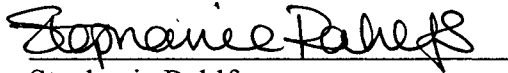

WHEREAS, Jack specifically upgraded and customized the electrical system, installed air conditioning in the simulation center, created simulation rooms with independent observation areas, created simulated emergency departments that show the continuation of care in a training setting, and created additional classroom space, among other accomplishments; and

WHEREAS, these improvements have greatly enhanced the education and training for our Fire-Rescue and Emergency Services personnel by providing a climate controlled and professional learning environment; NOW, THEREFORE;

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, does hereby proclaim November 18, 2005, as "JACK HANEY DAY" in the City of San Diego in honor of his outstanding contributions and service.
