

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 305314

DATE OF FINAL PASSAGE OCT 27 2009

WHEREAS, George C. Lin was born on August 16, 1971, in Rolla, Missouri; and

WHEREAS, at 18 years old, George C. Lin was diagnosed with pheochromocytoma, a rare and debilitating disease that continuously challenged him throughout his life; and

WHEREAS, in 1999, George C. Lin became the first Executive Director of the Asian Pacific American Film Festival, a non-profit corporation in Washington, D.C.; and

WHEREAS, in 2003, George C. Lin followed his passion, which led him to San Diego and a post at the San Diego Asian Film Foundation as Associate Festival Director; and

WHEREAS, under the leadership of George C. Lin, the San Diego Asian Film Festival has grown to screen over 150 films and attracts over 12,000 people every year; and

WHEREAS, the San Diego Asian Film Festival is entering its 10th year and first year since George C. Lin's passing, and it is clear that George C. Lin has left an indelible mark on all aspects of the yearly festival; and

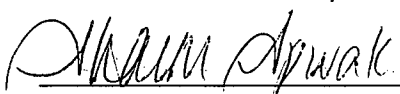

WHEREAS, George C. Lin lived his life without the fear of physical and mental challenge, without the envy of good health, and without the fear of death; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, does hereby recognize George C. Lin for all his contributions to the City of San Diego.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that October 13, 2009, is hereby proclaimed to be “GEORGE C. LIN DAY” in the City of San Diego.
