

RESOLUTION NUMBER R- 307006

DATE OF FINAL PASSAGE SEP 28 2011

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO
AUTHORIZING THE RETENTION OF JOHN
MALUGEN, ATTORNEY AT LAW, FOR LEGAL SERVICES.

WHEREAS, the City's Economic Development Department (EDD) administers the San Diego Technology Fund that provides capital to technology companies, and the Metro Revolving Loan Fund that provides funding to underserved small business owners; and

WHEREAS, the EDD submitted an application to the United States Economic Development Administration (EDA) to merge the City's two revolving loan programs; and

WHEREAS, to complete its review of the City's application, the EDA requires an attorney's certification that the loan documents comply with federal grant requirements and state and local laws: and

WHEREAS, this type of review is intermittent and infrequent; it had been required only once in the last eight years, and the City Attorney's Office does not have the expertise to timely review and process the documents; and

WHEREAS, John Malugen, Attorney at Law, originally created the loan documents in 2003 and last reviewed and certified them in 2007 and he has a legal practice that keeps him up to date on what is required to be in compliance with federal grant requirements and state and local laws;

WHEREAS, Mr. Malugen's rate is $200.00 per hour and his engagement for this matter is not expected to exceed $5,000; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED, by the San Diego City Council that the City Attorney is authorized to retain John Malugen, Attorney at Law, for legal services to review and certify to the United States Economic Development Administration that the loan documents used by the City's Economic Development Department comply with federal grant requirements and state and local laws and to advise the City of San Diego in relation thereto.
