SUBJECT: Connecting to Careers Workforce Roundtable Discussion Report Out to Committee

On March 28, 2012 my office hosted "Connecting to Careers," a workforce roundtable discussion focused on ways to work together to close San Diego's skills gap. The roundtable discussion was attended by Council President Tony Young and Councilmember Lorie Zapf along with representatives from San Diego Workforce Partnership, San Diego Regional Economic Development Corporation, South County Economic Development Council, San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce, Qualcomm, BIOCUM, Sharp HealthCare, AT&T, San Diego Community College District, San Diego State University Extended Studies, and UC San Diego Extension.

The attached packet includes handouts provided for the attendees with the workforce roundtable event agenda, articles pertaining to the skills gap, and additional background information. In addition, an unofficial transcript of the event is provided.
