DESCRIPTIVE SUMMARY OF ITEM:

On June 13, 2012 LU&H heard a Housing Commission staff report on FY13 Homeless Emergency Winter Shelter Program and Connections Housing. This report detailed the Housing Commission's plans for funding the City of San Diego's Winter Shelter programs and the City's sponsored Connections Housing development for homeless adults set to open in December 2012. Staff recommendations were approved by the LU&H Committee. During the discussion, Councilmember Alvarez requested Housing Commission staff return to LU&H with another report that would include the following information: Potential Location for Homeless Housing and Service Facility, Scope/Size of Facility, Development Cost, Development Timeline.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION:

This item is informational only.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY OF ITEM BACKGROUND:

On June 13, 2012 the Land Use & Housing Committee ("LU&H") heard a San Diego Housing Commission ("Housing Commission") staff report on Fiscal Year 2013 Homeless Emergency Winter Shelter Program and Connections Housing. This report detailed the Housing Commission's plans for funding the City of San Diego's Winter Shelter programs and the City's sponsored Connections Housing development for homeless adults set to open in December 2012. The staff recommendations were approved by the LU&H Committee. During the discussion of the item, Councilmember David Alvarez requested Housing Commission staff return to the LU&H Committee with another report that would include the following information: Potential Locations for Homeless Housing and Service Facility, Scope/Size of Facility, Development Cost, and Development Timeline.

The report will respond to these specific questions using homeless data that includes Point-In-Time homeless counts and where housing facilities are currently located in the City of San Diego.
