

within 36 months after the date on which all rights of appeal have expired, the development permit shall be void.

- (b) A development permit may be utilized by the following methods:
  - (1) Issuance of a construction permit for the entire project or for a substantial portion of the activity regulated by the development permit, as determined by standards developed by the City Manager;
  - (2) Compliance with the terms contained in the individual permit, such as a phasing program, or the terms contained in an approved Development Agreement;
  - (3) Evidence of substantial use in progress, according to standards as developed by the City Manager; or
  - (4) Approval of a final map or a parcel map, if the map was a condition of the development permit.

(Added 12-9-1997 by O-18451 N.S.; effective 1-1-2000.)

§126.0109 Maintaining Utilization of a Development Permit

- (a) If issuance of a construction permit in accordance with Section 126.0108 is the method used for initial utilization of the development permit, the construction permit shall be kept active until completion of the final inspection or issuance of the certificate of occupancy to maintain utilization of the development permit.
- (b) If the construction permit is allowed to expire before completion of the project, the initial utilization of the development permit gained by that construction permit shall become void.
- (c) A development permit that is voided in accordance with 126.0109(b) may be reactivated by obtaining a new construction permit either during the original 36-month timetable for that development permit, or during the timeline as may have been extended in accordance with Section 126.0111.

(Added 12-9-1997 by O-18451 N.S.; effective 1-1-2000.)

§126.0110 Cancellation of a Development Permit

- (a) An owner or permittee may request cancellation of a development permit at any time before initial utilization of the permit. The owner or permittee shall submit the request for cancellation in writing to the City Manager. The development permit shall not be canceled less than 120 calendar days after the request is received by the City Manager. The City shall forward a written declaration of the cancellation to the County Recorder for recordation in accordance with Section 126.0106. The development permit shall be void on the date that the declaration of cancellation is recorded with the County Recorder. The City shall mail a copy of the declaration of cancellation to the owner permittee.

- (b) Once a development permit has been utilized, an owner or permittee may submit an application to rescind the development permit in accordance with the following:
  - (1) Where the development complies with all use and development regulations the application to rescind a development permit shall be processed in accordance with Process One.
  - (2) For development not in compliance with Section 126.0110(b)(1), an application to rescind a development permit shall be processed in accordance with the same process as would a new application for the same permit.

(Added 12-9-1997 by O-18451 N.S.; effective 1-1-2000.)
(Amended 3-1-2006 by O-19467 N.S.; effective 8-10-2006.)

§126.0111 Extension of Time of a Development Permit

- (a) Expiration Date. The expiration date of an approved development permit may be extended one or more times, provided the extensions do not exceed a total of 36 months beyond the expiration of the initial utilization period.
- (b) Request for Extension. Before the expiration of an approved development permit, but not more than 60 calendar days before the expiration date, an applicant may file an application for an extension of time to a development permit in accordance with Section 112.0102. If an application for extension of time is filed, the development permit shall be automatically extended for a period of 60 calendar days from the expiration date or until a decision on the extension of time has been made, whichever occurs last.
- (c) Review of Application. An application for an extension of time of a development permit shall be reviewed by the City Manager to determine whether the proposed development has significantly changed or is in substantial conformance with the approved development permit. If the proposed development is not in substantial conformance with the approved development permit, an application for an amendment to the development permit will be required. An applicant for an extension of time may also submit an application for, and concurrently process, an amendment to the approved development permit in order to extend the existing permit in case the extension of time request is denied.
- (d) Decision Process. A decision on an application for an extension of time of a development permit shall be made in accordance with the same process required for a new application for the same development permit.

(e) Findings for Approval. An extension of time, except for a Coastal Development Permit, may be approved without new conditions if the decision maker makes both of the following findings:

- (1) The project as originally approved and without any new conditions would not place the occupants of the proposed development or the immediate community in a condition dangerous to their health or safety; and
- (2) No new condition is required to comply with state or federal law.

(f) Findings for Conditional Approval. An extension of time, except for a Coastal Development Permit, may be approved with new conditions if the decision maker makes one of the following findings:

- (1) New conditions are necessary to protect the health or safety of the residents of the development or the immediate community; or
- (2) New conditions are necessary to comply with applicable state or federal law.

(g) Findings for Approval for Extension of Time for a Coastal Development Permit. An extension of time for a Coastal Development Permit may be approved only if the decision maker makes all of the following findings:

- (1) The project as originally approved would not place the occupants of the proposed development or the immediate community in a condition dangerous to their health and safety;
- (2) There are no changed circumstances which would affect the project's consistency with the Local Coastal Program; and
- (3) No new condition is required to comply with state or federal law.

(h) Denial of the Extension of Time. The decision maker shall deny the extension of time if the project, even as conditioned, would place the residents of the proposed development or the immediate community in a condition dangerous to their health or safety, or would not comply with state or federal law.

(Added 12-9-1997 by O-18451 N.S.; amended 10-18-1999 by O-18691 N.S.; effective 1-1-2000.)

§126.0112 Minor Modifications to a Development Permit

A proposed minor modification to an approved development permit may be submitted to the City Manager to determine if the revision is in substantial conformance with the approved permit. If the revision is determined to be in substantial conformance with the approved permit, the revision shall not require an amendment to the development permit. Within the Coastal Overlay Zone, any substantial conformance determination shall be reached through a Process Two review.

(Added 12-9-1997 by O-18451 N.S.; amended 10-18-1999 by O-18691 N.S.; effective 1-1-2000.)

§126.0113 Amendments to a Development Permit

- (a) A proposed revision to an approved development permit that would significantly reduce the scope of the development or is not in substantial conformance with the approved permit requires an amendment to the approved permit or an application for a new permit.
- (b) A proposed change in use from one use category to another or the change, addition, or deletion of a use within the same use category may require an amendment to a Neighborhood Use Permit or a Conditional Use Permit, depending on the uses allowed by the permit.
- (c) An application for an amendment to a development permit shall be acted upon in accordance with the same process as would a new application for the same permit. The application is subject to environmental review and will be evaluated in accordance with the State California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) Guidelines, Sections 15162-215164. The decision maker may revise existing conditions or impose new conditions.
- (d) An amendment to an existing development permit does not affect the original expiration date of the permit.
- (e) Within the Coastal Overlay Zone, a proposed change in use which will result in a change in intensity of use requires an amendment or a new Coastal Development Permit.

(Added 12-9-1997 by O-18451 N.S.; amended 10-18-1999 by O-18691 N.S.; effective 1-1-2000.)

§126.0114 Closing of Development Permit Application

The development permit application file shall be closed if the applicant fails to submit or resubmit requested materials, information, fees, or deposits 90 calendar days from the date the application was deemed complete or the last written request by the City, whichever is later. Once closed, the application, plans and other data submitted for review may be returned to the applicant or destroyed by the City Manager. To reapply, the applicant shall submit a new development permit application with required submittal materials and shall be subject to all applicable fees and regulations in effect on the date the new application is deemed complete.
