Subject: Agreement to Terminate Disposition and Development Agreement with Pacific Development Partners, LLC. with Settlement and Mutual General Release

SUMMARY

SEDC Board of Directors Recommendation – That the Southeastern Economic Development Corporation (SEDC) Board of Directors (Board) recommend to the Redevelopment Agency of the City of San Diego (Agency) the approval of the Agreement to Terminate Disposition and Development Agreement with Settlement and Mutual General Release (Termination and Release Agreement).

BACKGROUND

In 1996, SEDC, on behalf of the Agency, purchased a 14.7 acre site (Site) located in the Central Imperial Redevelopment Project Area. The Site, commonly known as the Valencia Business Park, was located within the 100-year flood plain. Upon acquisition, the Agency approved an additional expenditure of approximately $7 Million and authorized SEDC to cause the installation of extensive public improvements on the Site in order to allow a net 8 acre portion to be developable. These public improvements include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Construction of flood control improvements to the Las Chollas Creek to accommodate a 100-year storm event
- Elevation of the Site from the 100-year flood plain
- Construction and dedication of public open-space along Las Chollas Creek
- Installation of sidewalks, landscaping, street trees and irrigation within the street right-of-way of Stevens Way and Imperial Avenue and the MTS Trolley Line
- Subdivision of the Site into nine lots including two open space lots containing Las Chollas Creek

In 2005, the United States Postal Service opened the 25,000 square foot post office (retail distribution center) on Lot 1. During the same time period, the Agency terminated an earlier Disposition and Development Agreement with a different developer and, in November 2006, approved the Disposition and Development Agreement (2006 DDA) with Pacific Development Partners, LLC. (PDP) for development of Lots 2-7, consisting of 4.33 acres of the Site.

Pursuant to the DDA, PDP was required to develop certain light-industrial uses on Lots 2-7. However, after seeking tenants for an industrial development, PDP determined that industrial uses on Lots 2-7 were not economically feasible and consequently decided to revise the planned development to include retail and commercial uses. In order to implement the development of retail and commercial uses (rather than light-industrial uses), PDP submitted to SEDC a request for a zoning change of Lots 2-7 and an amendment to the DDA.

Accordingly, in June of 2007, SEDC applied to the Planning Commission for a rezone of Lots 2-7 from SESD I-1 to SESD CT-2. The CT-2 Community Commercial zone allows for community serving retail uses, consistent with PDP's revised planned development of Lots 2-7. On December 6, 2007, the Planning Commission voted to recommend to the San Diego City Council approval of the proposed rezone. However, due to community controversy arising over PDP's change in the planned development of Lots 2-7 and other issues and community concerns involving PDP and SEDC, the application for a zoning change was never presented to the San Diego City Council for final approval and, therefore, never completed.¹ Additionally, an amendment to the DDA was never presented to the Agency for consideration.

After a series of events including SEDC's issuance of a Request for Proposals involving Lots 2-7 and issuance of a Notice of Default to PDP for failing to develop Lots 2-7 according to the 2006 DDA, PDP asserted claims against SEDC and the Agency including a request to compensate PDP for expenses allegedly incurred in connection with seeking a rezone of Lots 2-7 and responding to the Request for Proposals issued by SEDC.

In light of the claims and disputes asserted by and between SEDC and PDP and in light of the Agency's and SEDC's desire to redevelop Lots 2-7, the SEDC Board directed SEDC's management and Agency Special Counsel to negotiate a termination of the 2006 DDA and to settle any and all claims by and between the parties in connection with the 2006 DDA and development of Lots 2-7.

The parties have reached a tentative agreement on all terms, which are included in the proposed Termination and Release Agreement. In furtherance of the public interest, the parties have agreed, subject to the terms therein, to voluntarily terminate the 2006 DDA and to settle any and all claims in connection with the 2006 DDA and development of Lots 2-7.

As part of the settlement of claims and disputes, the Agency would make a total payment of $75,000 to PDP which would be offset by the Agency's retention of the $50,000 good faith deposit paid by PDP to the Agency pursuant to the 2006 DDA, resulting in a net out-of-pocket cost to the Agency of $25,000. The parties acknowledge that, should this matter result in litigation, it is reasonably foreseeable that the estimated legal fees and costs of the parties would exceed $25,000.

Pursuant to the proposed Termination and Release Agreement, PDP, the Agency, and SEDC where applicable, would: (i) voluntarily terminate the 2006 DDA; (ii) settle any and all claims and disputes by and among the parties that may exist pertinent to the 2006 DDA, the development of Lots 2-7, and the implementation of the 2006 DDA; and (iii) release each party from any and all claims and disputes (potential or otherwise) that each party may have against the other party, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Termination and Release Agreement.

DISCUSSION

On September 30, 2009, the SEDC Board recommended approval to the Agency of the proposed Termination and Release Agreement with PDP. Further, the Board authorized the Acting President/CEO to execute, on behalf of SEDC, any and all documents necessary to give effect to the Termination and Release Agreement if approved by the Agency.

Based on the issues related to the 2006 DDA, the series of events including SEDC's issuance of a Request for Proposals and issuance of a Notice of Default to PDP, and the desire to redevelop Lots 2-7, the SEDC Board determined it necessary to terminate the 2006 DDA with PDP and resolve any and all claims and disputes among the parties. These actions and the action now requested of the Agency will expedite the redevelopment of Lots 2-7. Additionally, any litigation involving Lots 2-7 would delay development of the Site. By approving this action, the Agency will allow SEDC to redevelop the remainder of Valencia Business Park in a timely manner.
