THIS IS AN INFORMATION ITEM ONLY. NO ACTION IS REQUIRED ON THE PART OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Aglae Saint-Lot to the position of Neighborhood Services Coordinator for the Mid-City Community Service Center effective December 2, 2002. The Community Service Center Program was established to bring City services more directly to residents and serve as liaisons between the communities and downtown City departments. Aglae will be responsible for oversight of the Mid-City Center facility and its operations, act as a liaison with the City Council Office and community leaders in providing City services, and coordinate community events and activities.

Aglae is currently the Events Coordinator for the City Heights Weingart Library and Performance Annex. She started her career with the City in 1995 as an Adult Literacy Coordinator for the San Diego Public Library. Prior to employment with the City of San Diego, Aglae worked in New York as the City College of New York Program Coordinator and later, the Volunteer Coordinator for the Haitian Council Centers.

Aglae is a graduate of the City College of New York and has a Masters degree in Education from Columbia University, New York. Please join me in congratulating Aglae Saint-Lot on her appointment.
