

Short-Term Transitional Housing Program for Displaced Seniors

Statistical Summary January 1 to October 31, 2002

	October	Year to Date
Bed nights for Senior Community Centers clients	565	4808
Bed nights for San Diego Reach clients	141	1793
Bed nights for Traveler's Aid Society clients	200	852
Bed nights for San Diego HOT clients	71	301
Total bed nights for all clients	977	7754

	October		Year to Date
	total	new
Clients housed by Senior Community Centers	28	10	101
Clients housed by San Diego Reach	5	0	11
Clients housed Traveler's Aid Society	9	2	17
Clients housed by San Deigo HOT	3	1	11
Clients served by more than one agency or occurrence			5
Clients served by all agencies	45	13	135

	Year to Date
Average length of stay for Senior Community Centers clients	48
Average length of stay for San Diego Reach clients	163
Average length of stay for Traveler's Aid Society clients	50
Average length of stay for San Diego HOT clients	27
Average length of stay for all cleints	57

88% of the people who were compliant with Senior Community Centers' program have moved into, or are still working towards, more permanent housing.

Of the 101 people Senior Communtiy Centers has served:

16 remain in the program

37 moved into a SRO

3 moved into a house

12 moved into an apartment

2 moved into a Board & Care or Nursing Facility

7 moved with their whereabouts unknown

3 moved into less stable situations

21 left the program with non-compliance, rules violations, or did not complete any case management

